Principal’s Desk
Well what a brilliant day!! After all the rain we have had, the Spring Air Gods smiled on us with blue skies and sunshine! It was amazing watching the school a buzz with excitement, wonderful cooking smells drifting across the grounds and the squeals of children on roller coasters or as they watched their favourite teacher get dunked!!

Of course these occasions are valuable for helping to raise funds for the school but most importantly it’s a celebration of all the wonderful things this school has to offer.

These events take numerous hours of planning over many months and with the weather we have had some re-planning. I am aware there were many people involved in a variety of ways however I would personally like to thank Kim Old for her leadership of this year’s Spring Fair. I am fully aware of the hours spent on this event, especially over the last few weeks. So on behalf of the community, staff and students, Thank you!

Thought I would enclose a photo sent to me last night. Not quite the same as Tahiti or as warm!!

OOSH Update
Last week a panel was formed consisting of staff, parents and the DEC to finalise the tender agreement for our proposed OOSH. This will involve a tender being advertised and interested companies and organisations applying. This proposal also involves the successful company bringing in a building which will be located down the back, in a location that will not restrict our playground.

Scheduling of completion is still out of the school’s hands but fingers crossed for day one next year. As these legal steps proceed I will let our community know where we are again up to. As mentioned before, due to the Royal Commission on OOSH set ups, all applications have been held up.

SASS Week

This week we are celebrating SASS week. What does SASS week mean I may hear you say. This involves our lovely three angels in the office. We all know that they actually run the school and occasionally let me have a go! However they fulfil a myriad of roles that ensure our students are safe, healthy and happy. They also support the staff and our community. They are the face of our great school and what a beautiful face that is.

So on behalf of the students, parents, staff and especially me, I would like to say a huge thank you to Miss Nicole, Miss Pina and Miss Kerry!

Congratulations to all the Glenhaven families who purchased the Entertainment Book this year. Not only do you reap the benefits of using your discounts but again we are one of the top selling schools.

Glenhaven sold 100 books raising $1352.00 for our school, $50.00 of these proceeds being donations from 4 families. Books are still available online through Entertainment Books for digital memberships. This will still benefit the school.

Another top year!

Thanks,
